Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Co-Operation, Vol. 6: January, 1920; The Great Change, the Place of Co-Operation in the Trend of Events, What of the Saving?, The Coming Collapse, an Unnecessary Burden In doing these things we discover that we obtain certain immediate advantages. We are spared the dangers of diseased and adulterated food, short weight, shoddy goods, and all the catalog of humbug which characterizes private business for profit s sake. We may enjoy a certain amount of economic saving if our business is conducted carefully. But these are not the principal advantages. The value of Co-operation lies beyond these. Co-operation sets people working together with one another - for their mutual good. It gives training in the one ethical principle which must dominate the world if civilization is to proceed. Of all the schools and universities none has a more important teaching function today than the Co-operative Movement. Co-operators do not aim at the overthrow of any government. We are not concerned with the state. We want to be left alone to harmonize the people and to attend to our own business. We do not want the state to take over anything or to do anything for us. We ask only that it shall grant to Co-operators the same privileges and provide them with the same protections that it grants to private tradesmen, and as it provides for profit-making business. We want to avoid a bloody revolution. We aim to see the great change brought about without disorder. We know that our program will accomplish that because we are doing it. In this program the function of Cooperation is the training of the people to carry on their...
