

When Things Happen to People: The Field Beyond Good and Bad (Paperback)

By S Elise Peeples

Eshu House Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book documents my personal journey before, during, and after I had a mastectomy on September 4, 2009. This account is not meant to be a How-to-Turn-Negative-into-Positive-in-Nine-Easy-Steps kind of book. Rather, it is a how-to book only in that it demonstrates how to, while on a difficult journey and in life in general, cultivate an attitude of receptivity and openness to guidance from both the seen and unseen and to involve community. I can only speak to the first steps, that of receptivity and community. The next steps must be discovered/unveiled by each person on such a journey, only after the first are taken, not just once but before every step. I began the book so that I could publish a series of e-mails that I sent out to my community and the responses I received back from them. A strong theme in the book is how crucial community was to me all along the way. The community brought with it a larger lens, changing the focus of my attention from what was me and mine...
