H63 2006f OCLC Number: (OCoLC)76804447 Excerpt: . . . 11 Whenever we talk about this, and I stand on my record and my past as chairman of one of Americas most successful companies. You, Rob Portman, know the company very well, having known the last CEO. So I am not embarrassed to talk about these things without risk-ing the accusation of class warfare. That is such an unfair designation. Because if there is class warfare, it is against those who are struggling to make a living. For what we spent last week to give wealthy Americans more tax cuts, we could have enabled another 2. 8 million youngsters to at-tend a public college. We could have provided health insurance for every uninsured child in America. We could have hired 225, 000 public school teachers and still had enough left over to scan every cargo container coming through our ports. In the business world, where I come from,...
