O. , 2006. LC Number: KF27 . S3924 2006e OCLC Number: (OCoLC)71222080 Subject: Engineering -- Study and teaching (Higher) -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 tract more young people into the professions. And I got a lot of flack for that, Mr. Chairman. I mean, to me, it is a no-brainer, but I just got a lot of flack for saying that. But the kids who look and see that the lawyers all have the good - nice-looking cars and the big houses and maybe a very smart young person then decides to go into law rather than into engineering. I can understand that. Well, let me just note that I see cost and compensation as being major factors in this discussion. And cost is what we need to bring down the cost for young people who want to get degrees in math, science, and engineering so when they leave their school they dont end up with a mountain of debt which they are not then hired by some law firm to take care of that debt, because now it is - they are on their own where math and engineering students from overseas, who are here taking advantage of our graduate programs es-pecially, are sponsored by their own government, and they end up in no debt at all where our students end up entirely in debt, and they are almost indentured servants for five or 10 years of their life. That needs to be addressed. And my - I have some legislation aimed at - well, at least providing full scholarships...
