Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Sea Fisheries The book finished, the more pleasant task remains, and that is to thank the numerous friends who have by their assistance and co-operation rendered its possible. Since an adequate knowledge of the sea fisheries can only be obtained in one place, and that is at sea, I have to thank many fishermen of all classes from the steam trawler skipper to the humble cockier for their invariable kindness in explaining the mystery of their craft. That I have avoided mistakes in comprehending their instruction is, I fear, not to be expected; but one hopes that the mistakes are neither numerous nor serious. I count it an honour that the greater number of my friends and acquaintances is to be found amongst the fishing population. Although the nature of my duties has frequently brought me into collision with what they have doubtless considered their rights and privileges, I am proud to think that I have never received aught but courtesy at their hands. No finer body of men is to be met with anywhere than British fishermen; this statement can be made with confidence by one who has spent much time with them, in fair weather and foul; and no one can have more hearty wishes for their prosperity than the author of this volume. To the Lancashire and Western Sea Fisheries Joint Committee, whose servant I have been for fifteen years, I am indebted for permission to make use of photographs originally taken to illustrate reports on the fisheries within their jurisdiction. I should like also to take the opportunity of thanking the Committee, both individually and collectively, for many acts of...
