My wish is that as you read this collection of real life experiences, you will feel as though you have unexpectedly run into a trusted, long lost friend who confided in you and shared some incredible personal moments. I hope this book will bring you comfort, a few chuckles, some inspiration or possibly all of these. -Carol Carol Baird has discovered the real secret. . . that there is no secret. Gods messages are there for the taking - we just have to pay attention long enough to see them. A Swift Kick to get that attention is what this book delivers, in a heartwarming and human way. - Linda Gerber, Author Now and Zen, The Finnish Line, Death by Bikini(2008), Puffin http: www. lindagerber. com I had an opportunity to read the chapter and I thought it was great. I felt like it really captured everything that happened that day in Columbus. . . - Adam Taliaferro, former Penn State football player http: www. taliaferrofoundation. org Inspiring and uplifting, . . . a true testament to the power of prayer. . . stories that are both...
