On its joint Operation by this means with Poetry. -----An ObjeBion to Musicsolved. ---The Advantage arising to it, as well as to Poetry, from their being united. Conclusion. IN the above Discourse, Music has Ch. VI. been mentioned as an Ally to Poetry. uvJ It has also been said to derive its Efficacy from another Source, than Imitation. It remains, therefore, that these things be explained. Now, in order to this, it is first to be observed, that there are various Asieclions, which may be raised by the Power of Music. Music. There are Sounds to make us chearful, or fad; martial, or tender; and so of almost every other Affection, which we feel. It is also further observable, that there is a reciprocal Operation between our...
