Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Memoirs of Mrs. Rebecca Wakefield: Missionary in East Missionary work in Eastern and Central Africa has of late years come to hold a prominent place in the attention and sympathy of the Christian public of the world. The explorations of Mr. Stanley, the founding of Missions on the Upper Congo, and in Uganda, as well as the murder of the good Bishop Hannington; and of Mr. and Mrs. Houghton of the United Methodist Free Churches Mission, have all, no doubt, tended to produce this result. In the final chapter of the present edition of this work many additional particulars will be found which it is hoped will be of interest; and some notes have also been added concerning the state of the Mission at the present time.
