You must remember when you feel like giving up God's word declares in Isaiah 54:17 No weapon forged against you will prevail, and you will refute every tongue that accuses you. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and this is their vindication from me. When God makes such a declaration it doesn't mean that we won't experience persecution and attack, but He does declare that when calamity comes we must stand on his word knowing he has already fought our battle, provided a way of escape and that we are more than conquerors. Nothing shall separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord! Evangelist Faye Mosby As you delve into each chapter, and meditate on each scriptural nugget tucked away in designated places, allow the Lord to personally speak to you regarding your own situation. Through the Fire, for His Glory reveals hurt, healing, disappointment, and frustration, but Evangelist Faye has persevered with a God-given resiliency that has kept her steadfast in the work of the Lord. From chapter 1, Life Begins, to the final declaration be prepared for a fresh revelation of what it really means to walk by faith, trusting GOD in the process, knowing that he is in control. I am looking forward to hearing more from Evangelist Faye Mosby. Apostle Barbara J. McClain An ordained elder/evangelist, psalmist, songwriter, recording artist and seminar facilitator Faye Mosby has traveled extensively ministering the word of God in teaching, preaching and in song. She overcame obstacles that could have stopped her ministry or worse could have cut...
